Eligibility Requirements

The first step is to determine if you meet the eligibility requirements for US citizenship. These requirements include:

- Being at least 18 years old
- Being a permanent resident for at least 5 years (or 3 years if you are married to a US citizen)

- Having resided in the United States for at least 30 months out of the last 5 years
- Being able to read, write, and speak basic English
- Having a good moral character
- Passing the citizenship test
- Attending a citizenship interview

The Naturalization Process

Once you have met the eligibility requirements, you can begin the naturalization process. This process involves several steps:

1. Filing Form N-400: This is the application for naturalization. You can file it online or by mail.
2. Biometrics Appointment: You will be required to provide your fingerprints and photograph.
3. Citizenship Test: You will take a test on US history, government, and civics. You must pass the test to continue the process.
4. Citizenship Interview: You will meet with a USCIS officer to review your application and test your knowledge. You must pass the interview to be recommended for approval.
5. Oath of Allegiance: If you are approved, you will take the Oath of Allegiance and become a US citizen.
