Synopsis

In the vibrant city of Toronto, amidst the bustling streets and thriving arts scene, a young woman named Anya embarks on a journey of self-discovery and love.

Anya has always been passionate about dance, but her strict upbringing has stifled her dreams. When she meets the enigmatic and talented choreographer, Ethan, she feels an undeniable spark.

As they work together on a captivating new production, Anya and Ethan's bond deepens. Amidst the rehearsals and performances, they share their dreams, hopes, and fears. Their connection becomes a catalyst for Anya's growth, as she learns to break free from the confines of her past.

"Show For Two" is a captivating and emotionally resonant story that explores the power of love, the transformative nature of dance, and the importance of embracing one's true self.

Interview with Tashie Bhuiyan

Q: What inspired you to write "Show For Two"?

A: I was inspired by my own experiences as a dancer and choreographer. I wanted to explore the transformative power of dance and its ability to unlock our potential. I also wanted to tell a story about love, self-discovery, and the challenges we face as we navigate our lives.

Q: What do you hope readers will take away from your novel?

A: I hope readers will be inspired to pursue their dreams, no matter how big or small. I also hope they will come away with a deeper understanding of the importance of love, acceptance, and self-compassion.

Q: What are your writing plans for the future?

A: I'm currently working on my second novel, which is a historical fiction set in 19th-century India. I'm also excited to continue writing short stories and essays that explore themes of identity, culture, and the human experience.
