The Road Through Wonderland: Surviving John Holmes is a gripping memoir by Laurie Holmes, the wife of the late adult film star John Holmes. The book chronicles Laurie's journey from a naive young woman to a strong and independent survivor.

Laurie met John in the early 1970s, when she was just 19 years old. John was a rising star in the adult film industry, and Laurie was immediately drawn to his charisma and good looks. They married in 1976, and for a few years, they lived a life of luxury and excess.

But John's addiction to drugs and alcohol soon began to take its toll. He became increasingly violent and abusive, and Laurie lived in constant fear for her life. In 1982, John was arrested for the murder of a fellow adult film star, and Laurie finally decided to leave him.

The Road Through Wonderland is a powerful and inspiring story of survival. Laurie Holmes tells her story with honesty and candor, and she offers hope to other victims of domestic violence.

If you are interested in learning more about Laurie Holmes's story, I encourage you to read The Road Through Wonderland. It is a powerful and inspiring book that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
